

The struggle is real! but ✝ so is ✝ Jesus

PLUM is compiling devotions into a 2022 Lenten Devotional with the theme of “Struggling with Jesus” and we need YOU!

Please consider writing a devotion for this project.

We need one devotion for each of the 40 days of Lent.

Across our 10 congregations, we are looking for 40 people to each write a devotion.

Write from your experience and follow the guidelines/instructions below. Thank you!

“Struggling With Jesus” Lenten Devotions Instructions

- Please choose a verse or passage from Scripture that speaks to you about how you have endured personal struggles with the help of Jesus, or how you have personally struggled with your relationship with Jesus.
- Your devotion should have the scripture passage or verse typed at the top of the page.
- Write your reflections about the passage; share a personal story, share your thoughts. Write it in your style. It does not need to be long. Aim for 250-400 words.
- Compose a prayer and print it at the bottom of the devotion.
- Add your name and the name of your congregation at the bottom of the page.
- Email your devotion to Deann at christluthduq@gmail.com by February 1, 2022.
